"So rare a combination of attractions as that which Frederick Saunders of the Astor Library has succeeded in grouping together in his 'Festival of Song,' deserves more than the mere mention of a passing paragraph. The best breathings of the best poets, the most exquisite pennings of our best artists; an accompanying letter-press of most genial and sympathetic comment, anecdote, and criticism; the whole framed as it were amid mechanism, surroundings of such dainty and gossamer—such a dim description of this delectable book!"—[Cor. Boston Post.]

The entire effect of this elegant Presentation and Holiday Book exceeds in finish and variety anything of the kind yet produced among us; the illustrations are in the highest style of engraving; the type, paper and binding are sumptuous, and the work commands itself to all lovers of art and of letters—the eye and the mind, to the taste and the imagination. The "Festival of Song" is worthy to be a memorial of the Arts of Peace in America!"—[Boston Transcript.]

AS THE DRAWINGS OF THIS WORK WERE CONTRIBUTED BY THE ARTISTS OF THE NATIONAL ACADEMY, INCLUDING IN THE LIST THE MOST DISTINGUISHED NAMES IN AMERICAN ART, IT PRESENTS A HIGHER ORDER AND MORE BRILLIANT ARRAY OF ARTISTIC TALENT THAN WERE EVER BEFORE ASSEMBLED IN ONE PUBLICATION.

The work forms an elegant quarto volume of 322 pages, printed on tinted paper, and bound in rich and elegant style of morocco, &c.
